

Gaston Oxarart.

M. Gaston Oxarart, a well known and wealthy citizen of Los Angeles and one of the leading wool growers of the State, died in this city yesterday at the age of 61 years. M. Oxarart was a native of the Commune Aldudes, in Pyrennian, France, and came to Los Angeles in 1851, at the age of 26 years, where by industry and strict attention to business he amassed a fortune estimated at $800,000. He leaves a sister, Mrs. Maria Arroqui, a brother, Simon Oxarart, at Santa Gertrudes rancho; a niece, Mrs. Maria Save, and a nephew, Simon Gless, formerly with A. Vignolo & Co., in this city. Mr. Gless is reported to be the custodian of the property, which largely consists of real estate in this city, including the postoffice building. He was also the proprietor of the Encino rancho and held about $200,000 in French 3 per cent. bonds.

The casket for his remains has been prepared by Garrett & Neitze, and is probably the finest ever prepared in Los Angeles. The funeral will take place on Monday, at 9 A. M., from his late residence, 43 Boyle Avenue.
