

LEFT IN TRUST.

The $200,000 estate of Josefa Batz, who died on the 1st inst., has been left in trust to the executor, A. D. Cajol, now at Pau, France. Mrs. Batz, whose will was filed for probate yesterday, gives one-third of the net income to her husband, Jose Domingo Batz, and the remaining two-thirds to her four children, August, Marguerita, Esperanza and Bautisto.

At the termination of the trust in five years, the property is to be distributed in the same proportions. At the death of Batz, it is provided that his one-third share shall go to the children, share and share alike.
