

PROBATE ASKED IN 500,000 ESTATE A petition to probate the half million dollar estate of Domingo Gastambide, pioneer Los Banos sheepman, was filed in superior court last Saturday by his three daughters, named as sole heirs, through Stephen P. Galvin, attorney. Gastambide died in San Francisco July 15. The will	is dated July 5. West side real estate valued at $400,000 was deeded to the daughters, Miss Bertha Gastambide, Mrs. Mary J. Etcheverry and Mrs. Annie Menjoulet, of Los Banos, just before he died. The remainder of the estate,	$95,000 in stocks and bonds and 10,000 in cash, is distributed by the will. Michael Etcheverry, his son-in-law, is named as executor. Madera—Santa Fe freight depot present size.
