

Yarnoz-Bidart Wedding

Before 200 guests wedding vows were recited recently by Miss Martha Yarnoz, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benito Yarnoz and Frank R. Bidart, the son of Mrs. M. Bidart at St. Francis Catholic Church. The ceremony was read by the Reverend Father Joseph H. Howard, pastor of the church with the young couple attended by Miss Olive Hingman, maid of honor, the Misses Rachel Rankin and Alice Bidart, bridesmaids, John Bidart, best man, John Eaton and Charles Hanning, ushers, Marilyn Noriega and Donald Hecattino, train bearers. Mr. Yarnoz gave his daughter in marriage.

The bridal entourage filed down the long aisle, which was carpeted in white, and assembled before the altar massed with brilliant red chrysanthemums and lighted by three tall candelabra, each containing seven tapers. The pew ends were festooned with ranunculus and chrysanthemums.

The Spanish ballroom of Hotel El Tizon was gaily decorated for the reception which followed. Bases of greenery festooned the ceiling and pink, white and orchid colored chrysanthemums were scattered profusely over the table which was centered with a wedding cake confection in many tiers.

The maid of honor was attired in a turquoise colored frock of fine taffeta trimmed with velvet of the same color. Her headpiece was a hair of turquoise, filed taffeta. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses.

The bridesmaids were exquisite in peach and wine colored frocks also of fine taffeta. They carried Talmann buds and wore beaming headpieces to match their gowns. Little Miss Noriega was gowned in a turquoise blue dress trimmed with velvet ribbons and flowers and her little partner wore a dark suit.

Miss Florence Hayless played an organ recital precluding the ceremony and added the favorite wedding music George Meyer, tenor soloist, sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly," with Miss Hayless at the organ.

Mrs. Bidart was gowned for the rite in a white satin dress, made princess style, with long of mittion sleeves. Hand-made lace adorned the neck and tiny covered buttons decorated the front from throat to hem, and a train cascaded under the tulle veil. The latter was caught to the head with a simple hair clip, edged with pearls. Satin slippers and a bouquet of bride's roses, lilacs-of-the-valley and bouvardia, completed the handsome ensemble. For a going-away costume the bride selected a tunic suit of rust colored sheer wool trimmed with fox fur and a corsage of orchids. Brown accessories were worn.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bob Simpson of Los Angeles.

The bridegroom is connected with his brother in the ranching business. He is a member of the Elks lodge, Native Sons party and other organizations.

After a honeymoon of 10 days in the north and south, the couple will be at home to friends in Casa Loma Acres.

Clipped By:

m_gariador

Sat, Dec 3, 2022