

NEVADA ESTATE CONTEST DELAYED

LOS ANGELES, April 14.—(P)—Hearing of the contest of the will of Jean Cazaurang, wealthy Nevada rancher, was postponed today until May 17 because of the death yesterday in San Diego of the widow, Mrs. Marie Cazaurang.

Mrs. Cazaurang was seeking one-half the $100,000 estate. Opposing her was Mrs. Marie Lees Thomas, niece of the rancher, who claimed the estate under a previous will. Carrying on the action with Mrs. Cazaurang was Mrs. Dorothy Carrey, widow of her attorney, Robert B. Carrey, who died last year.

When called May 17, the case may proceed under an administrator or executor.
