

John Ansalabehere Of Lemoore Passes

John Ansalabehere, 49, native of France who lived in California for 32 years and in Lemoore for the past 16 years, died Tuesday in a local hospital after an illness of several months.

Mr. Ansalabehere is survived by his widow, Mrs. Lucy Ansalabehere, and two sons, Gracian and Albert of Lemoore.

Other survivors include one brother, Gracian, of Bakersfield; two sisters, Mrs. Catherine Pauly of Bakersfield; and Mrs. Grace Ayerza of Lemoore. Two brothers and four sisters in France also survive.

This morning the body will be taken to Bakersfield for funeral services after lying in state at Phipps Mortuary in Lemoore.