

Church Rite Unites Couple In Marriage

CARSON VALLEY, Feb. 2.—The marriage of Miss Anita Borda of Reno and Major John Etchemendy of Gardnerville was solemnized Monday afternoon in St. Gall's Catholic church in the presence of immediate family members and close friends.

Reading the nuptial rite was the Rev. George Eagleton and standing with the couple were Miss Josephine Monaghan of Reno and Henry Rosenbrock, jr., of Gardnerville.

For the occasion the church altar was banked with white carnations and lighted with white tapers.

The attractive bride was dressed in a royal air force blue three-piece ensemble with navy blue accessories and corsage of orchids.

Miss Monaghan wore a gold ensemble with brown accessories and corsage of talisman roses.

Mrs. Etchemendy is the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter Borda and was born and reared in Gardnerville and attended the local schools. She completed her education in Los Angeles and prior to her marriage was employed by the Hale drug company in Reno.

Her bridegroom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Etchemendy of Gardnerville and is a graduate of the Douglas county high school and the University of Nevada school of engineering. On the campus he took a prominent part in various activities and was an outstanding athlete. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. Upon graduation he was commissioned a second lieutenant under the ROTC program and completed his training as an army pilot at Randolph and Kelly Fields in Texas. For the past three years he has been an instructor in the army air corps and at present is stationed at Randolph Field.

Following a wedding trip to San Francisco, Major and Mrs. Etchemendy will reside in Texas near Randolph Field.

Clipped By:

m_gariador

Sun, Mar 22, 2020