

Pioneer Los Alamos Rancher Dies in SM

Miguel Bastanchury, pioneer rancher of Los Alamos district, died last night in Sisters hospital where he had been a patient the past month. A native of France, he was born February 21, 1874, and had been a resident of California since early boyhood.

Surviving are his son, John Bastanchury, of Los Alamos, and his daughter, Katherine Bastanchury, Santa Maria. His wife died three months ago. Funeral arrangements will be announced at Haider's Funeral home, Santa Barbara, where the body was taken for last rites.
