

DOUBLE RING CEREMONY WITNESSED BY 175 RELATIVES, FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nicholes

One hundred and seventy-five relatives and guests witnessed a double-ring ceremony which united Marguerite Chillbolost of Chino and Andrew Nicholes of Bell. Rev. R. P. Maher officiated at the wedding which was held Saturday at St. Margaret's Catholic church.

The bride wore a ballerina length knit dress with a fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations. She was given in marriage by her father, Mr. F.

Helsley Family to Be Honored at Picnic

A picnic honoring the Leonard Helsley family, members of the Chino Farm Bureau center, who will move to northern California next month, is being planned for Saturday, September 4 at De Anza park.

The farm Bureau unit is planning the event, and will furnish wieners, buns, coffee and punch, and those attending are to bring potluck dishes to complete the menu. Homemade ice cream is also being made, and it is suggested that those bringing desserts, bring cakes. Families are reminded to bring their own table service.

The picnic will be at 6 p. m., and all Farm Bureau members

Chillbolost. Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Antoinette Dicks who wore a light orchid ballerina length dress and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Mrs. F. Chillbolost wore a navy blue linen dress with white accessories while Mrs. L. Nicholes chose a green knit dress with green accessories for her son's wedding.

Best man was Louis Nicholas, brother of the groom. Ushers were Francis Dicks, the bride's brother-in-law, and Ben Chillbolost, her brother.

Soloist was Marcia Arroza who sang Ave Maria accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Harold Richenberger.

Reception following the ceremony was held in Centro Basco hotel. In charge of the guest book was Miss Betty Aguerre while Joe Rodriguez and Nellie Lassa opened the gifts.

The couple honeymooned in the High Sierras and San Francisco. They will reside in Bell, California, where the groom is employed with the DuPont company.

The new Mrs. Nicholes attended Chino high school graduating with the class of 1952.
