Pierce-Corson Nuptial Vows Read at St. Margaret's

St. Margaret's Catholic Church, Chino, was the scene of the double-ring marriage of Miss Joann Ruth Corson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Corson, 4385 Francis Ave., Chino, and John O. Pierce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pierce, 5208 Francis Ave., Chino.

The Rev. R. P. Maher, pastor, officiated at the rites. Mr. Corson gave his daughter in marriage.

For the ceremony the bride chose a white taffeta gown and lace veil. She carried a Bible and white orchid.

Her maid of honor, who was her sister, Miss Nora Mae Corson, wore blue and carried pink carnations tied with blue ribbon.

Delmar L. Fox of San Fernando attended the bridegroom as best man.

Mrs. Harold Richenberger played the wedding music for the ceremony.

Since their return, Mrs. Pierce is residing with her parents while she continues her senior year at Chino High School. Mr. Pierce, who has been serving in the Army the past two years, will report to Ft. Monmouth, New Jersey, on Jan. 3, for a six-month period. He is a graduate of Chino High School.

Serving at the reception were Mrs. Teresa Dyson, who cut the cake, and Miss Lila Waterman and Miss Connie Diaz.
