

McCourt-Mutuberrria Rites Attended By 350 Guests

Three hundred and fifty guests were seated in St. Margaret's Catholic Church in Chino as the Rev. Michael O'Day heard the wedding vows of Miss Suzanne Marie Mutuberrria and Peter E. McCourt.

The church was decorated with gladioli and pom-pom chrysanthemums as the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michel Mutuberrria, 5945 Riverside Dr., Chino, was escorted to the altar by her father for the double-ring rites.

The bride wore a gown of peau de soie silk and Chantilly lace made by her mother. The bodice was fashioned with short lace sleeves and lace yoke. The floor-length skirt had a narrow front with a bustle effect in back which fell to a chapel train.

A crown of lace and pearls held her fingertip veil of silk illusion.

She wore diamond earrings given her by the mother of the bridegroom. Completing her costume were elbow-length white kid gloves. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. John Garvan of Ontario and Mrs. Ferdinand Etchart was the soloist for the ceremony.

Preceding the bride down the aisle were her attendants,

Miss Michelle Mutuberrria, maid of honor, and bridesmaids Miss Carolyn Valpreda, Miss Sue McCourt, Miss Mary Mettler and Miss Bonnie Donaldson.

All attendants were gowned in green floral street-length dresses with matching headpieces. They wore pearl-trimmed white gloves and carried pale yellow carnations.

Michael Laden of Van Nuys was the best man. Seating the guests were John Hancock, Jim Messinger, Skip Gervais and John Porter, fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

The newlyweds received guests at a reception at the Chino Community Building.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. James W. Benedict and Mrs. Donald Porter of Oakland, Miss Ayako Omura of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Mrs. K. C. Porter and sons of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. McCourt will make their home at 1637 Alma St., Palo Alto while both continue studies at Stanford University. Mrs. McCourt is a senior, majoring in English.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin A. McCourt, 4755 Phillips Blvd., Ontario, is a graduate student at the university, studying for his master's degree in nuclear engineering.

TO ATTEND STANFORD UNIVERSITY—Mr. and Mrs. Peter E. McCourt will both attend Stanford University in Palo Alto this fall after their marriage in St. Margaret's Catholic Church in Chino. The bride, the former Suzanne Marie Mutuberrria, is a senior and her husband is a graduate student at the university. (Haynes photo)
