

Rites Pending for Veteran Law Officer

SANTA ANA — Funeral services are pending for Steve DuHart, retired Orange County undersheriff who died Tuesday night in Santa Ana Community Hospital.

DuHart, a veteran of 31 years in law enforcement work, suffered a heart attack while recovering from surgery, hospital authorities said.

He retired as undersheriff April 30 after service with the district attorney's office and the sheriff's office since 1929.

DuHart had spent many years on the force as a one-man vice detail specializing in cracking bookmaking operations. He had also served under four sheriffs.

He is survived by his wife Ruth, of the home, 812 S Baker St., Santa Ana.
