MR. AND MRS. JEAN SANSINENA

Sansinena-Amestoy Rites Read in Chino

Three hundred guests attended the wedding of Miss Grace Veronica Amestoy and Jean Pierre Sansinena in St. Margaret's Catholic Church in Chino.

Jean Amestoy of Chino escorted his niece to the altar for the double ring rites at which the Rev. Michael O'Day was officiant.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Amestoy, 13066 15th St., Chino, was gowned in Chantilly lace and tulle.

The wedding gown was designed with a scalloped neckline, long sleeves and a floor-length skirt of tiers of lace and tulle.

A crown of pearls held her fingertip veil. She carried a cascade of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Yellow organza over taffeta gowns were worn by the bridal attendants as they preceded the bride down the aisle.

Mrs. Norberta St. Esteben was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Barcelona, Miss Juanita Barcelona, Miss Judy Durham and Miss Juliet Robidart. They carried mint green carnations.

Joseph Sansinena of Huron was the best man for the bridegroom who is the son of Mrs. Grace Sansinena of Urepele, France.

Ushers were Matthew Sansinena, Jean Arretche, Michel Suquibide and Pedro Ainciburu.

Dorothy Richenberger was the organist.

A reception for 350 guests was held at the Centro Basco Hotel in Chino.

The bride is employed at the Chino Branch of the Bank of America. She was graduated from Chino High School in 1960 where she was a member of the California Scholarship Federation.

Mr. Sansinena came to the United States from France in 1952. He is employed at Charles De Jong and Son Dairy in Corona.
