

er, Cincinnati, Ohio; a daughter, Mrs. Margie Bloomfield of Montclair; and a sister, Mrs. Ethel Weber, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mr. Tucker was a member of the American Legion Post 299, World War I Barracks, Chino.

The Rev. Patrick G. Welch, of El Cajon will officiate. Interment will be at Bellevue cemetery.

Jacinta Ybarrola

Funeral services for Mrs. Jacinta Ybarrola, 81, of 12966 13th street, will be held today (Wednesday) at St. Margaret's Catholic church.

Mrs. Ybarrola died Saturday in a Pomona rest home following a lengthy illness.

Born in Spain on July 4, 1885, she came to Chino in 1909. In 1929 she moved to Fullerton, but returned to Chino in 1959.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Modesta Alvarez, Chino and Mrs. Marguerite Jacquemin, Chino; two sons, Frank Ybarrola of Long Beach and Philip Ybarrola, of Neuvo; eight grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Rosary was held Tuesday at Griffith chapel at 8:30 p.m. A High Mass will be held at St. Margaret's at 10 a.m., today, with the Rev. Michael O'Day officiating.

Interment will be at Calvary cemetery, Los Angeles.

Frank McMillan

Funeral services for Frank A. McMillan, 71 of 12760 Wright avenue, will be held today (Wednesday) at Honold Brothers mortuary.

Mr. McMillan died Sunday in the Long Beach Veteran's hospital.

Born in Teton City, Idaho, June 18, 1895, Mr. McMillan came to Chino eight years ago from Ft. Teck, Montana. He was a retired Civil Service employe for the U.S. Corps of Engineers. He was a Navy veteran of World War I.

Survivors include his wife, Mattie McMillan, of the home address, and a son William L. McMillan, of Chino; three daughters, Mrs. Frances M. Rongstad of Chino, Mrs. Helen Andrea Clift

Clipped By:

m_gariador

Tue, Nov 26, 2019