

CHANGALA MASS CELEBRATED AT ST. NICHOLAS'

Requiem mass for Dominic Changala, 46, a well-known El Toro rancher-farmer, was celebrated Thursday at St. Nicholas Catholic Church, El Toro.

Mr. Changala, who was born in San Juan Capistrano, had resided in this area most of his life. A World War II Air Corps veteran, he is survived by his wife, Phyllis; two sons, Paul and Philip; and two daughters, Cecile and Lorraine, all of the home at 23882 El Toro Rd.

Other survivors include his mother, Mrs. Marie L. Changala, also of El Toro, seven brothers, John, Peter, Leon, Steven and Si, all of El Toro, Joseph of Santa Ana, and Anthony, of Ensenada, Mexico, as well as his sisters, Mrs. Adeline Martinez, Upland, and Mrs. Mary Louise Jaureguy of La Puente.

Interment was at El Toro District Cemetery. Final arrangements were by Brown Colonial Mortuary.
