

Mrs. Jennie C. Hauret; Southland Pioneer

Mass will be celebrated at 10 a.m. today at Cathedral Chapel, Roman Catholic Church, 927 S. La Brea Ave., for Mrs. Jennie C. Hauret, whose family once owned a large ranch which was a portion of what now is Hollywood.

Mrs. Hauret, 90, died Wednesday at her Newbury Park home.

She was born in Los Angeles July 7, 1880 and lived on the family ranch in what then was known as Colgrove. A section of the ranch bounded by Beverly Blvd., Melrose Ave., Larchmont Blvd. and Van Ness Ave. was subdivided in 1923.

She leaves a son, Thomas C. Hauret of Hawaii, and two grandchildren.

Charles L. Suhr; Ex-Oil Official

OIL CITY, Pa. — The former board chairman and president of the Pennzoil Co., Charles L. Suhr,

Clipped By:

m_gariador

Tue, Dec 25, 2018