

Jeanne Sorholus

Jeanne Etchegaray Sorholus, a 35-year-resident of Eureka, died Sunday in her home there.

She was born Aug. 30, 1908, in Banca, France, and came to Nevada in the early 1920s. She married Joseph Sorholus and moved to Reno. In 1936 the couple returned to Eureka.

He died in 1956. Mrs. Sorholus continued to own and operate the Gold Bar after his death.

She was a member of St. Brenda's Catholic Church.

Survivors include a son, Albert; grandchildren Joe and Janice, and sister Mrs. Grace Sallaberry, all of Eureka; a brother Leon Etchegaray of San Francisco, and another brother in France.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Burns Mortuary in Elko. Burial will be in Eureka.
