

John Chilibolost

CHINO — Chino native John Chilibolost was found dead last Wednesday on the John Coudures Ranch in Moreno where he worked and resided.

The Riverside County coroner's office said he died of natural causes.

Mr. Chilibolost was born Oct. 1, 1915. He was a veteran of World War II and a member of St. Margaret's Catholic Church.

Surviving are his widow, Irene; two daughters, Mrs. Shirley Baker of Alameda and Mrs. Lynn Berklas of Simi Valley; two sons, William John of Riverside and Richard Alan of Ft. Carson, Colo.; his mother, Mrs. Mary Chilibolost of Chino; four sisters, Mrs. Joaquina Rodriguez and Mrs. Toni Dickes of Chino, Mrs. Nellie Lass of Hawthorne and Mrs. Margaret Nicholas of Downey; and one brother, Ben Chilibolost of Chino.

Rosary will be recited Monday at 8 p.m. at the Griffith Mortuary Chapel. Requiem Mass will be celebrated Tuesday at 9 a.m. at St. Margaret's Catholic Church.

Entombment will be in the Bellevue Mausoleum in Ontario.

Clipped By:

m_gariador

Mon, Mar 19, 2018