

Philip Ybarrola

Philip Ybarrola of Chino, a retired production manager for McDonnell-Douglas Aircraft Corp., died June 13 at home. He was 87.

Mr. Ybarrola was born May 23, 1914 in Chino. He had lived in Chino 20 years. He had worked for McDonnell-Douglas Corp. in Long Beach for 39 years. He was a parishioner at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Chino. He was also an avid golfer and fisherman.

Mr. Ybarrola is survived by daughters, Judy Myers of Yorba Linda, Lynda Roberts of Long Beach, Jean Martinson of Ohau, Hawaii, and Joan Morris of Maui, Hawaii; a brother, Frank of Nuevo; 16 grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren; and a niece, Rosie Alvarez-Irriat of Chino.

A Mass was celebrated Wednesday at St. Margaret's Church. Interment was at Holy Sepulcher Cemetery in Orange.

Memorial contributions may be made to a charity of choice.

Pierce Bros. Griffith Mortuary in Chino handled the arrangements.

Clipped By:

m_gariador

Tue, Nov 26, 2019