

ALICE ERROTABERE

Alice passed away on Thursday, May 27, 2004, at the age of 84. She was a devoted and loving mother and friend who will be very dearly missed.

Alice was born in Turlock, and grew up there before moving to Riverdale, Piedra, and then to Fresno. She graduated from Turlock High School.

Alice was preceded in death by her parents, Marie and Simon Alga; her husband, Martin Errotabere; and her son, René Errotabere.

Alice is survived by her daughter, Sharon Tashjian and her husband John of Visalia; her brother, Mitch Alga and his wife Mary of Irvington, VA, her daughter-in-law, Kay Errotabere of Clovis; her grandchildren, Kristy Ainsworth of Stevenson Ranch, Shawn Cooper and his wife René of Visalia, Julie Errotabere of Clovis, and Ann File and her husband Corey of Clovis; and her three great-grandchildren, Zachary Ainsworth of Stevenson Ranch, and Ashlie Cooper and Courtnie Cooper of Visalia.

Alice will be remembered for her wonderful sense of humor, contagious laugh, strength, thoughtfulness to others and devotion to family and friends. She brought life and laughter into any room she entered and into our hearts. She will never be forgotten.

Alice, we love and miss you dearly.

A Recitation of the Holy Rosary will be held at St. Helen's Catholic Church on Tuesday, June 1, 2004, at 6:30 p.m.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at St. Helen's Catholic Church on Wednesday, June 2, 2004, at 10:00 a.m. Interment will follow at St. Peter's Cemetery in Fresno.
