

SOCIETY.

A wedding was celebrated at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gless, at Boyle Heights, the 3rd inst., the event being the celebration of the marriage of Anthony Amestoy to Thresa Hyrriat, both residents of this city. The bride was very beautifully dressed, in a cream colored satin costume, with Valenciennes lace and orange blossoms. The bride and groom departed upon yesterday's train to San Francisco, where they will spend their honeymoon, and will return in about four weeks and take up their abode at their residence in Boyle Heights, which is already furnished to receive them upon their return.

The groom is the son of the late Domingo Amestoy and is 27 years of age. The bride is a leading society belle in the French colony of this city.
