

A SPANIARD'S OATH.

Martin Lifur Admitted to Be a Citizen of the United States.

A Spaniard was admitted as a citizen of the United States this morning—the first one since the war. His name is Martin Lifur and Judge Van Dyke had no fear of his loyalty. Senor Lifur is willing to let bygones be bygones and to forget what little he ever knew about the war. He is a sheep-herder back in the mountains away from civilization and Sampson, and Shafter, and Cervera are unknown names to him. He only has a misty notion that a squabble of some kind occurred, but as it did not concern sheep or pasture lands, he has no interest in it.
