

FUNERAL OF MRS. GLESS TO BE TODAY

Member of Pioneer Family Will Be Laid to Rest in in Calvary Cemetery

Funeral services for Mrs. Juanita Amestoy Gless, member of an early California family, will be conducted in St. Basil's Church today at 10 a.m. Burial will follow in Calvary Cemetery.

Mrs. Gless was preparing to go for a ride Saturday when she was stricken with apoplexy. She died a few hours later. She lived with her son, Domingo Gless, 357 South Kenmore avenue. She leaves another son, Constant, also of this city.

Mrs. Gless was the daughter of Domingo Amestoy, who came here around the horn from France in 1850 under spell of the lure of '49. He engaged in the sheep business on the Los Feliz Rancho, which included all of what now is Hollywood, and Juanita was born there in 1865. He later was owner of Encino Rancho in San Fernando Valley.

Simon Gless, the woman's husband, died many years ago.

Clipped By:

m_gariador

Thu, Nov 23, 2017