MRS. JOHN B. GARAT

At a quiet ceremony performed Monday evening at six o'clock by the Rev. John J. Ryan at Our Lady of the Snows rectory, Miss Alice Poco became the bride of Mr. John B. Garat. The couple was unattended. Miss Poco chose for her wedding a smartly fashioned suit of blue with which she wore matching accessories and a corsage of orchids. Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding dinner for members of the family was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Poco, on California Avenue. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Garat departed for an extensive wedding trip to New York and other eastern points. Mrs. Garat is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Poco, and is popular with a wide circle of friends. She is a graduate of the Reno high school, Miss Hamlin's School in San Francisco, and attended Oregon State College and the University of Nevada. Mr. Garat is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John B. Garat who for many years were identified with the livestock industry in Elko county. They also maintained a home in San Francisco, where Mr. Garat attended school. He is a graduate of the University of San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Garat have no definite plans for a permanent home but will probably reside in San Francisco.
