

Mrs. Gabriel Duhalde Passed Away in L. A. Hospital Sunday

Catherine Duhalde, wife of Gabriel Duhalde, Ramona avenue and Carbon Canyon road, and a resident of Chino for nearly 20 years, died Sunday afternoon at the French hospital, Los Angeles, following a year's illness, at the age of 49 years.

A native of France, Mrs. Duhalde came to California in 1925 and moved to this community three years later. Surviving besides the widower are two daughters, Charlotte Duhalde, at home, and Marie Duhalde, in France; two sons, Ernest at home and John in France, and two sisters and two brothers in France.

A rosary was said for Mrs. Duhalde Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the K. T. Heinauer mortuary chapel, with the funeral mass at Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic church Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock, Rev. Fr. Philip Watz officiating. Interment was in Holy Cross cemetery, Pomona.
